We will be having a pancake lunch on February 16th. If you can bring in toppings (chocolate chips, syrup, sprinkles, fruit, or any other fun topping you can think of for our pancakes) please have them here no later than Tuesday morning.

There will be no decodable books this week. We are now starting the comprehension part of Open Court. Your child will be tested after each story.

Math: This week we will be learning to draw congruent shapes and designs (two triangles exactly the same), measuring and drawing line segments to the nearest inch, counting nickels, and ordering events by time.

Language Art: Our unit is Keep Trying. Please be looking for articles that deal with perseverance for our Concept/Question board. This week's stories are: In 1776 by Jean Marzollo and The Itsy Bitsy Spider as told by Iza Trapani
