A warm weather day. Raise your hand if it felt good. I hope you were able to get outside and enjoy it a little. These things are such a blessing to so many. Don't forget to give thanks.

F.Y.I.

> Our Lost and Found has quite a few items in it. It is located in the hallway outside of the faculty room door.

> A pair of snow boots didn't get home with Parker Hills. If you ended up with an extra pair. Please give the Hills a call.

> SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT At the April 5th Board of Directors meeting, it was decided to make May 6th an early release day. School will be released at 12:30. The faculty will have a tremendous opportunity to have Mrs. Patty O'Dell of the Twin Falls school district as a speaker for our faculty. EXCEL will be available.

> Our CCS Book Fair is going very well. The students are very excited. The book fair will continue through Friday after school. We will pack things up at that time.

> Showcase Your School is going on now at the Magic Valley Mall right now. Stop by and see the CCS display. Thank you to Sarah Weg and Sandy Pittock for all of their hard work in setting up the display. Teachers, you are doing such a wonderful job with our CCS students.

➤ Thank you to the PTF for supplying the Easter Basket cupcakes for today's candy sale. They looked so cool.

➤ KMVT will be filming a commercial for CCS on April 26th. They will be here for our Chapel and in and out of our classrooms. At the bottom of this email is a form if you do not want your child to be seen in the commercial. If you do not want your child to be seen in the commercial, please fill out the form and send it back to school before the 22nd.

➤ May 10th CCS is will not have school so the teachers can look at the data that was generated by the testing that will be completed at the beginning of May.

Blessings to you all and,
To God, and God alone, belongs the glory!
