THANK YOU for a yummy Green Eggs, Ham and Pancake lunch and a big THANK YOU to Mrs. Deadmond, Mrs. Rietkerk and Mrs. Pittock for helping. Dr. Seuss week has been fun.

THIS WEEK:

Phonics: Our letters for the week are "Bb" and "Cc". We are constantly reviewing our letter names, sounds, and rhyming words. We have two new books this week, they are: The Nap, The Bib. We are now into Decodable books. This means that we are now sounding out words and reading our sight words. There are no picture words in our story. This is how we sound out a word:

Sat= sound= sound = blend = sound = blend = say the word

s a sa t sat sat

Please let me know if you have any questions on this.

Please be reviewing your sight word rings and little readers daily!!! We are also blending words daily.

Math: We are writing the 30 family. Have your child count everyday as far as they can. Some of us need a little work with our counting. We are still reviewing time, penny, and dime daily.

Bible: We continue on with Moses leading the Israelites to the promise land. John 3:16 is our verse.

WEATHER: You still need to be sending winter jackets, hats, and gloves with your child everyday. Our playground is muddy so please send snow boots.

THANK YOU to those who have donated $$ towards our classroom auction quilt! If you have a rocking chair or a quilt rack you would like to donate please let me know a.s.a.p!

Have a great weekend and pray for spring weather!!
